MARIONETTE

Little marionette    Hanging in the air
Do you feel the hands that work
The thing that holds you there?

Look up to the sky    Do you see what's there?
The horse that draws the sun is gone
And no one quite knows where

Look up at the sun    Be sure you do not stare
Who lives there we do not know
But he is everywhere

If you ever knew    Would you even care?
You are just a little marionette
Who is hanging in the air

SLEAZIN'

I ain't sleazin'    And you ain't pleazin'
You know I could be    Your worst en'my

Smash your teve    You'll still see me
This is how it's so    I'm carryin the show

Lyrics

Go see Pomona She's your new owner
And you ain't gonna get What you ain't gotten yet

You go see Dale Just out of jail
You're gonna fall so hard Face on the boulevard

Yeh I ain't sleazin And you ain't pleazin
This is how it's so I'm carryin the show
I ain't gonna go go go

FACE ON THE FLOOR

I can see the face on the floor
I can't tell if it's you any more
I can see the face on the floor

I didn't choose it
I didn't lose it
Oh no

THRESHOLD BLUES

Sleep came up to me
The threshold blues
But I survived I always do
The threshold blues

Which way people
To the threshold blues?
Night or day
We all gotta choose

Lyrics

THE CLIMB

I saw a sign    The climb will end
It was the line    The gods defend I took what's mine    Now see me, friend
Now see me, friend

America

JAR

We kneel down to pray    But I think today
Our prayers will be empty
Of meaning

Fallujah, Diwaniyah    Najaf, Numaniyah Offer cities and bodies
For healing

You look through the eyes of a fish in a jar Talk to a god who don't know who you are

Ilium tears    Oily careers Tawhid torn out of Division

When we will be weeping    You will be sleeping Such an easy Decision

WERE UH BELEVER

Everything you see is good for the soul
America is everything and swallows you whole

Lyrics

They fly you by night to the ends of the earth
To castles where you learn just what freedom is worth

Oh the rope is so smooth oh the rope is so tight
Your neck it belongs to the American right

The American right is scared of the dark Pharaoh is riding so leave a black mark

When you follow the Bible your heart is so strong
You really can't know if you done any wrong

You see what you want to feel Jesus' breath
The body is swinging in lingering death

THE MAN WHO MADE A WAR

There was a man who made a war    In an age of wood
He declared the noble lie to us    That war is good

We offered up our hearts to him    And we were led And try to learn what he had learned,    That war's not dead

He looks the republic in the eyes    Each John and Jayne
He talks of war and faith and law    And war and pain

And as if he was a holy man    He knelt and prayed
And with every prayer he showed us how    War is made

His eyes rolled slowly up to God    And past the sun
And when even God believes the lie    War has won

And I wonder why we need these lies    And what we saw For when or where you are or were    War is war

A RAMBLE IN THE SAND

They sent me to this land
To ramble in the sand
But where I am I don't really know

I know I can't explain
Or if I'd join again
I go where they tell me to go

I'm used to livin' here
I been here for a year
But oh the time it sure passes slow!

I grew up on a farm Tattoos across my arm
But this ain't no rodeo

Some day I'll be a man
An' maybe understand
Just why God made it so

CITIZEN'S BLUES

I don't know what to say
I don't know what to do Hurts my head every day
I am lost so are you

In the citizen citizen blues

All I see is so wrong
They've rounded up the USA
The citizen she don't belong
Lost her voice and her way

Lyrics

In the citizen citizen blues

I don't know where to hide
I don't know where to go
Was my land I was inside
Now where I am I don't know

In the citizen citizen blues
Oh the citizen citizen blues

OUT OF THE WAY

The American people    They're kept out of the way
But it's my contention    They got nothing to say

American people    Get out of the way
Your government needs you    Get out of the way

American patriots    Carry the flag
And if yu don't like it    Yu must be a fag

The American people    Wait for the call
The American people    Ain't needed at all

That is the future    And that is the past
The dollars are flowing    The runes have been cast

Y.O.$.A.Y

We are the crew    We cumin atchu
You aint gunna win when the big boyz play!

y.o.$.a.y!

We fight for the right    To fuck all night
We gunna kick haj ass all day!

Lyrics

y.o.$.a.y!

We fight hard and mean    And the haj fagz ll scream Bitches ll cry as they run away!

We aint gunna go    Without makin sho
The haj r just pussy ass queers anyway

y.o.$.a.y!

y.o.$.a.y.

GRUNTZ

Mook's not scared any more
But as for me I ain't so sure
He was lifted up off the floor

Sgt J's not scared no more
He drank too much and he was a bore
If he'd have known what was in store

Al 'the Haj' ain't scared no more
He was the one who loved this war
His head was snapped right off its jaw

Deeanne cannot be scared no more
She would a helped me out before
The roadside bomb cut thru the door

Nils' not scared any more
He took this job and loved the Corps Now there ain't no either or

Lyrics

Dan and Don ain't scared no more
They were strong and they were poor Both had kids they never saw

The ones who send us on our way Speak out on our behalf today
An' I wonder what my friends would say

TRILOGY

Song Of The Sound

One man and his gun lying in the sun
As the world went round and round
They didn't make a single sound

LES SABLES D'ANTAN

Oh the gold of the evening
Looks so pretty
You should be leaving

And when you can't remember
How to get up and go
You never know
How these little things grow
Into the gold of the evening
You could be leaving
And you can't see how the answer stares
At you like the desert dares
You to see it
And if you did maybe you could free it
From the gold of the evening
When you could be leaving
If you knew how

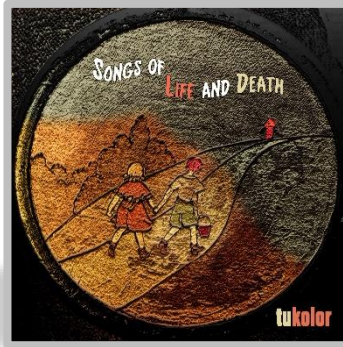

Lyrics

Anyway
There's no way out

Though you'd like to leave
And you'd like to forget what it means to grieve
In the evening
Although it looks so pretty
You should be leaving
You should be leaving
Right now

Lyrics

Songs Of Life And Death

WHITE RIDER

White rider white rider
Saddle your horse
White rider white rider
Harness your force
White rider white rider
Stay the course

EASTER ISLAND BLUES

I can see the world is falling Falling to the ground
And the shaman's voice is calling
But there's no one else around
And the stones the men are hauling
Are the ones that will be found

THE CALM

Hey there! safe in the calm stay there don't be alarmed

Lyrics

we will let you break free be still!
give me the key

THE BIRD IS SINGING HOW CAN I BE OLD

The bird is singing
How can I be old?
The bird is singing
How can I be old?
The bird is singing
A bell is ringing
And I am very cold

The bird is flying
How can it ever rest?
The bird is flying
How can it ever rest?
The bird is flying
(There's no denying)
To the treasure chest

The bird is leaving
Leaving all the trees
The bird is leaving
Leaving all the trees
The bird is leaving
As if it's grieving Sinking to its knees

THE LITTLE ROCK

Knock knock knock
O little rock
It's cold out here!
It's not you I fear
The wolf's so thin!
O let me in!
O let me in!
Let me in!

FLOWER SONG

The flowers in the sun cover everyone in summer
in summer

The skies are on the run over everyone in summer
in summer

SUNSET MAN

Oh sunset man
Put down the land
Don't be about to walk

Don't turn away!
I need the day
Stay awhile and talk!

THE WINTER MOON

We pass on
In twos and pairs
The winter moon
Is over there

And if we move
Out of the cold
The guards will come
And we'll be sold

The night is deep
The day is hard
The winter moon
Is tied and tarred

THE WICKED ECHO

Wicked echo
Let go let go
No more no more
We saw we saw

TENNESSEE DEW

I once saw a mocking bird
But she couldn't fly
She called me a fool
And I never knew why

I turned around and away I flew My eyes were filled with Tennessee dew

Lyrics

Now you can't move a man
From his foolish heart
They fool you with words
And say it is art

*Oh I's all tored up when the sky was blue
And I was clear as Tennessee dew*

I drank pure moonshine
In a well of rain
And whiskey is rye
And rye is grain

*Oh I forgot everything I knew
But that ain't nothing to the Tennessee dew*

THE HANDSOME ROVER

There was once
A handsome rover
Who took the dawn
To dance the square

But then we saw
When it was over
The handsome lad
No longer there

Time came passing
With health and pain
But the handsome lad
Was never seen again

QAYRAWĀN

O salaam! Who are you to fear me?
Mariam, she couldn't hear me

I, would do everything I can I, could never follow such a man

Caravan, caravan

GIRL IN THE GLASS

Thinking drinking packing your secrets away

Hiding fighting
they won't see the light of the day

*What is a dream when it's already dreamed?
Never the thing that it seemed*

Staring not caring how could you know what to do?

The subtle bottle soon it is empty as you

The sealing feeling you're deep in the tomb of the day

And though you go to the window you can't find a way

SAVERNAKE CHILL

Where are we? Are you awake?
Here are the trees of Savernake

The birch the willow and the oak Hide and seek in a secret soke

By eventide it is so still Can't you feel the Savernake chill?

SAILORS

Sailor boy, the sea's your mistress Sailor boy, she is your distress Sailor boy

Sailor girl, the sea's your master
Sailor girl, he's your disaster Sailor girl

Sailor child, the sea's your playground
Sailor child, it will not stay round Sailor child

HARBOUR

The burning stars are bright today
As they have ever been I see my shadow as they pass
But I am never seen

*The harbour walls are overhead
The bay is sleeping still
And over there the dear and dead
No longer work their will*

Lyrics

I know just where I need to go
I ramble through the town
The rooftops bear a golden light
Just like a golden crown

*The harbour walls are overhead
The bay is sleeping still
And over there the dear and dead
No longer work their will*

I will not tell them where I go
They won't see what I mean
They never know the things I see Or been where I have been

*The harbour walls are overhead
The bay is sleeping still
And over there the dear and dead
No longer work their will*

A QUIETUS

Come with me to the other side
It's time for us to take a ride
It will not take us long
All of this is wrong!

It's time for us to make a stand
There's nothing more to understand What would you have me bring?
All the other things!

Lyrics

There is nothing more to fear
You were so tired of waiting here
When should I draw the line?
All the other times!

It is no good to look behind
That will make you lose your mind
Where else could I go today?
All the other ways!

This is a land of innocence
No difference no violence
Who would you have arrived?
All the other lives

INANNA BLUES

Far below the open ground
Down down down
Inanna waits
Down down she waits

Down down
Down down down
Nanna waits Downtown

THE COLOURED RIVER

Went down to see the coloured river
That shakes you when you wanna shiver

The world is just a sunshine lover Nighttime you run out of cover

Lyrics

Hard to see the land of never When white light traps you all forever

GREY RIDER

Grey rider, ride
For they lied

Grey rider, go
For they know

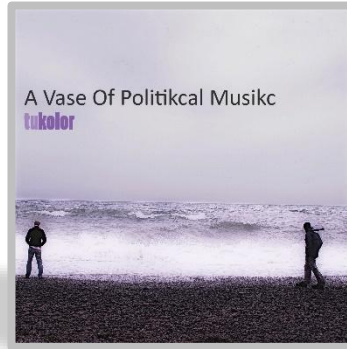

Grey rider, fear
For they're here

MORDECHAI SHRIEK [OUT-TAKE]

How can I live in this big old world?
this big old world big old world
how can I live in this big old world?
the world that Jesus hurled

Into the arms of the mighty sea the mighty sea almighty sea
into the arms of the mighty sea
the sea that reaches me

A Vase Of Politikcal Mousikc

LOOSENED LOVE

Loosened love
Eat my heart away
Let me in
To the day

MARY OCEAN

Who can show the soul emotion
On a ship that sails the ocean?
Mary, Mary

HALF SAVED

Half saved
half wolf follow the moon to the sea you and me

Lyrics

NEVER BEEN THERE

Hang me high from the nearest tree
If I should ever be worthless to thee

See that building over there
That's the jail never been there

Never been there!

THE MARKET

See the people on the market day
All the people who have lost their way Cut up purse and go off to pray
On the market day

Oh life is spent well on a summer day
Drink and dancing in the green and grey
You don't like it and we'll make you pay

CLAY MAN

The clay man came to claim
To claim us all today
And to make us pay
But the clay man found no clay
All he seemed to see
Was you and me

Oh you see you see me
You see me and hold me
To this age

FEAR OF FRANCE

Seems like a dream
The fear of France is over
Who will I send to meet the queen
Who kept her mine at Dover?

It's love that pulls the tide

GOOD THINGS WAIT

Good things wait
For a year or so
Then they're gone
That's what I know

I met her Say a year ago Spent my coin Raised my dough

When we met
My earth stood still
The wheel broke down
In my mill

And all I see
And all I know
She left home
In a golden glow

Good things wait
For a year or so
All I know

DON'T WALK AWAY

Don't walk away
Isolation
Don't walk away
Isolation today

ROLAND'S WILL

See the ladies
Creep and mill
All lined up
For Roland's will

Sow the seed Lift hup turn Roland he will Never learn

Summer long
He looks out
There are ladies
All about

Has no time
For joust and war
Roland he likes Ladies more

So ladies climb
Another hill

GOTTIC

The dogs are warning us to stay
No mercy will be shown today

The Lord and Lady out to ride
You must find a place to hide

They've even reached the sky above
The only thing they fear is love

We'll hide each other like a gem
May our love be the death of them

The dogs are coming out to play

a.m.o.r.e

WHO KNOWS WHERE SHE GOES?

Who knows where she goes?
Staring at the ceiling
Who knows where she goes?
Or what she was feeling

*Wherever she flies
Oh so far away
No one ever cries
When they come out to play*

Who knows where she goes?
The secrets that she carried
Who knows where she goes?
Or why she got married

*Whenever she cries
Each and every day
That is when she flies
And tries to get away*

Who knows where she goes?
Or why she was using
Who knows where she goes?
How no one saw the bruising

LOCKET

A locket
In my pocket oh
I see her as she was

Her eyes of green
Were rarely mean oh
I loved her as she was

On Christmas Day
She were took away
Just as Jesus were reborn

But she is here
All through the year
In her locket she keeps warm

COLOURING BOOK

Can I colour in your book?
A book is all it took Swallowed by the river

Colouring book

REUBEN AND RUTH

Sand in our wine
All that's between us
Yours and mine
Nothing between us
What could be so cold and so fine?

Sand in the air
We don't belong here
Why should we care?
Nothing is wrong here --
As if the rock and the wave are not there

Sand in our youth Feel it crawling
See the truth
Hear it calling Calling to Reuben and Ruth

Sand in our eyes
It never was raining
The ocean cries
It's not complaining
Reuben and Ruth are its prize

Sand in our hearts
And we both know it
We summon our arts
And try to throw it
But love has thrown sand on our charts

Lyrics

Sand in our love
The wine is drunken
The sky is above
The sun is sunken
We live and we push and we shove

THE MIDDLE OF THE SEA

The middle of the sea at night
The wave is cold there is no light
And although I know an end is here
I feel alright
I feel alright

LOVE BE LOUDER

Love be louder than a battlecry
Love, more subtle than a noble lie Love gives heart to a stoney eye

'Amour vincit omnia' is what they say Caesar and Berenice were both waylaid
Men and women roll the stones of May

Love be everywhere in every home
Beyond the Pale on the steps of Rome
Only Mammon with his heart of stone

LOVE BE LOUDER [DEMO]

Love be louder than a battlecry
Love, more subtle than a whorish spy
Love brings cloud to a droughted eye

Lyrics

'Amor vincit omnia' is what they say
Caesar and Berenice were both waylaid
Men and women take the rods of May

Love be everywhere in every home
Beyond the Pale on the steps of Rome
Where love is never the gods are blown

POP SONG

Someone to love

CARELESS

Careless
Don't blame me
If it all works out
We will be set free

Careless
A careless mind
I talk to you
But I don't mean to be unkind

Lyrics

Careless
You're careless too
You lose the things
We thought were true

Careless
Careless days
You threw away
All our careless ways

Careless
A careless end
A broken glass Will never never mend

THE FLARE

I will not light
The final flare Hard waves sheer Through the air
Yet I do not fear
The siren's lair

JARDIN

Above the window    There's an eye
That is where    The fool will lie

The rough ascent    The weakly will
The holding at    The window sill

The fool will knock    The glass will break
The eye will close    And you shall wake

POT OF GOLD

A pot of gold fell down Fell down to the ground
Was it for me?

I dropped my pot of gold
Down the road it rolled
I set it free

*This is a land of sleeping
I wake by the sea
The tide is waiting Patiently*

The sky the sun is in How can it begin
To help for me?

Round the world she rolled
And took my pot of gold Oh it was she

I DON'T KNOW

When spring took up the arms of man
And I put on a show
Now the lambs are all grown up
And I don't know

Once there was a summer song
A ribbon and a bow
Now the leaves are on the ground

Lyrics

Once the autumn danced a while
A sad song and a slow
Now the snow is all around
And I don't know

And now the dancers dance the yule
There's Alison and Flo
But do not ask me what to sing

GOODBYE LOU

If I was to say to you, Goodbye Lou
Maybe you'd laugh and say it can't be true
But it's something to say and you're not there
So I say it to you
Goodbye Lou

LAMENT | MEDEA'S SONG

I. Lament

Lament for the flower Lament for the rain Lament for the hour Lament for the pain

Lament for the real Lament for the dream
It will be revealed
It will be redeemed

2. Medea's Song

Oh Medea
Who is gayer?
Oh queen oh queen
The gayest queen I ever seen!

Oh Medea
On the sand
The world is yours
To command

Oh Medea
On the sea
The world is your Turanny

Oh Medea
In the sun
The world is your Orison

Oh Medea
Who could be gayer?
Oh queen oh queen

LUCY'S BLUES

Where oh where can Lucy be?
She has been so mean to me
Loads of things that I wanna say
A thousand things get in the way

*She's only five feet tall
When she steps out of her shoes
But she sure give me a thrill
And she sure give me the blues*

Well, Lucy's hands are cold as ice
She don't never tell you twice
I don't like how she stares at you
She likes lemon tea and Jesus too

They say company is not alone
But when she picks up the phone
I get to see what's on TV
With Lucy talking next to me

YOYO

Yoyo
Ho ho
They're laughing at you!
Oh no!

Ain't what you do
Or where you go Or how you are Or who you know

MONSIEUR ROBESPIERRE

Mister Robespierre tell me please
I'm an old Saxon dog with memories

I been in Lyons and in Nantes
I heard the words of your savants

The placards and the dust rose up
And John Bull nearly cracked his cup

They say the rich are fat with fear
And soon they will all disappear

From Orleans to Crécy's parts
Freedom is raining in their hearts

The song of freedom draws its blood
They sing it sinking in the mud

And I would like your freedom too But Mister Robespierre, do you?

LEAD ON

War is sacred War the prophet now
Lead on
Lead on

Love is dying
He will not save us now
Lead on
Lead on

I see a shadow
In the mirror now
Lead on

The word is war
The prophets praise it now
Lead on
Lead on

Love is dying
She will not save us now
Lead on
Lead on

The mirror can't Hold back the shadow now
Lead on
Lead on

The shadow flies out
From the mirror now
Lead on
Lead on

We are the dead
They are our leaders now
Lead on

MARY NEVILLE

Mary Nevile was her name
She set out to sail the main Four and twenty ships had she
For to sail upon the sea

The King of Spain rode to the shore
And Mary Nevile there he saw
With seven horsemen at her side
And she was going out to ride

“What, gentle lady, is your name?
“And why sail you upon the main?
“And why do you go out to ride
“With seven horsemen at your side?”

“I cannot tell you that, my Lord,
“And I swear to you upon my sword,
“The noble hawk upon this arm
“Would surely come to sorry harm”

Lyrics

“I pray you, Lady, hand to me
“The bird that rests upon your knee “For I would hunt before this eve
“And I will have him by your leave”

“My leave is what I shall not grant “Not for the devil’s gold I shan’t” “My Lady, I must know him soon
“Before the sun becomes the moon”

He took his bow and shot full quick
The bird fell to the ground dead sick
The King of Spain he stood steadfast Bernado Diaz breathed his last

THE HARE

The hare awoke to fife and drum
The soldiers had their battle won
The bonny lads they marched in time
A cry came forth from out the line
"My bonny boys take heart and run!
Hold fast your faith aim true your gun"

The hare she heard the soldiers’ cries
And quick she knew that she must rise
And death comes creeping to the slow
The sun was high the land was low
The hare as fleet as wind did flee
And fast came forth beside the shee

Lyrics

She took the branch that hung there down
And saw a land with great astound
Where boats there were beneath the sea
And there before her lay a key
The key unlocked a golden door
Silver flowers on the floor

There stood a raven in the reek
A silver flower in his beak
It droppèd down before the hare
She had glad heart to see him there
"I thank thee raven brave and true
But this kind gift we both shall rue!

We must depart before the day"
The hare and raven took their way
"Who could be wretched as are we?
Yet I be thankful I met thee"
And from the rivers of the moon
The hare she took her treasure soon

She gave the bird a golden ring
And quick the raven he took wing
They married gladly at the morn
With gifts of kine and cloth and corn
They parted from the shee as one
But when they woke they woke alone

They parted from the shee as one
But when they woke they woke alone

BENNACHIE

In Bennachie
She danced with me
I danced with her
She danced with me

The morning danced down
The mountainside
I was her boy
She was my bride

The sun had lifted up the day
And birds danced in the sky

FARE THEE WELL

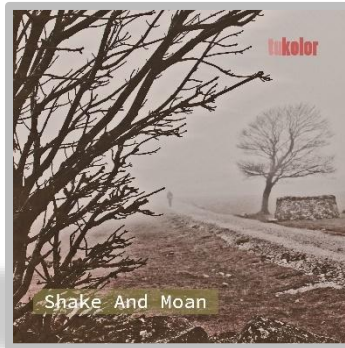

Fare thee well
I am to sail Damoisel
In fine serail
If I return I'll wealthy be Sweet Abigail

The wind is cold
In Muscovy
It should not hold
A mote to me
For winter will not devil me
If I have thee

Lyrics

Oh when shall I Return to thee
Then I shall ply,
To my lady,
Blood red wine, and courtishly
From Muscovy

LEAF

To the other world
She makes a prayer
Wears magick beads
In her hair

*She reads the leaves in her cup of tea
And her stories set her free*

Lyrics

"The future's now"
She likes to say
Her floor is stacked
With pots of clay

Now she ain't no fool
And don't tell lies
And I see a truth
Within her eyes

SHAKE AND MOAN

Shake and moan
Sand and stone
Tomorrow you and me will be The luckiest fishies in the sea

Push and shove
Live and love
Tomorrow you and me shall go
To the holy place that lies below

Life and limb Leap and swim
Tomorrow you and me shall face
The finest things in any place

Lyrics

Eat and drink
Try not to think Tomorrow you and me will be whirled
With our queen to another world

LORD FAIRFAX

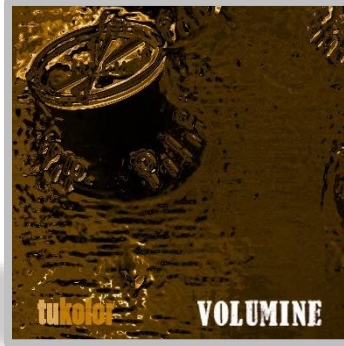

Oh Lord Fairfax
going out to ride
I don't think he will ever see how this poor world is inside

Oh Lord Fairfax
going off to war
he is too young to understand all the oaths he swore

Oh Lord Fairfax
he does not mean you harm all he wants is what he owns his castle and his farm

Oh Lord Fairfax
help him on his way for he will never hold his breath much longer than a day

CLIMB THE STEEPLE

Too much dust
It's empty here Same thing as It was last year

*Cross the nave
Hold the vestry
Strike the bell
And up the steeple*

*Drain the font Light the candles
Mark the grave
And up the steeple*

I look for him
He is not there
He must be here
He's everywhere

Lyrics

This building is Old as the sun
As old as death
From who we run

SILENT

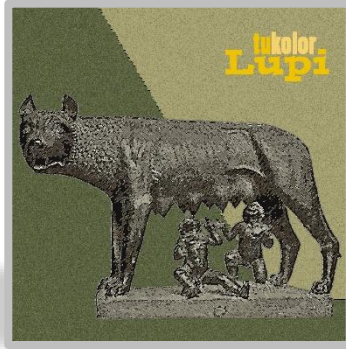

The silent walk
To an empty home
The TV's off
And she has no phone

Silently
Silently

She pours a drink
And she wastes the air
She's gaining weight
She's losing hair

The fading light
Pours down on her
It wasn't right
It's all a blur

LOCH ETIVE

In Loch Etive
Swam a salmon
Cold cold cold
By the bank
Sat a woman
Old old old

The fish lived deep
Beneath the sky
High high high
All day long
You can hear his Cry cry cry

The woman said
To the summer sun Roll roll roll
I've nothing left
To offer but my Soul soul soul

In Loch Etive
Swam a salmon
Old old old
By the bank
Lay a woman
Cold cold cold

ÖGODEI

I saw my father
When I was in dreamland
He was out riding
Bow in his hand

A boy stood before him
And what was he to do?
My father was smiling
He said 'Son is that you?'

I was so fearful
I wanted to say 'No'
Yet all I could say was 'Father,

FLOATING

EBB TIDE

Wise eyes
Go to sleep
When midnight comes

But where are we?
Are we wise?
Let's not close our eyes

Our surprise
Will be love
And we will not be wise

We can go
Out in the night
Where the snow lies

It looks so white
In the night
Where time flies

Wise eyes
Wake themselves
When daylight comes

Wise eyes
Wake themselves
When ebb-tide comes

SHE GOT ME

She got soul

GARUMNA BLUES

I fetched the water
From the shore today
I am the daughter
You turned away
Today

Lyrics

I earn my living
I eat and fight
But end up giving
All of my right Tonight

In Burdicala
There is a curse
You're not my father
You're something worse

I will no longer see you You're poured away
In my memory you
Been poured away
Today

In my memory you
Been poured away

FOLLOWING THE RAIN

When I go there
You always stare
Following the rain

But she's not there
So I don't care
Following the rain

Lyrics

One day oh yeah
You too'll be there
Following the rain

We'll both be there
With tears to spare
To wash away the pain

THE DOVE

A door, a key
And fearful, me
And there they were White as the moon the dove and her

She looked at me
But did not see
The dove he flew
And if she had wings she would too

I turned away
And it was day
And she nowhere
The feather lay white as her hair

ROSEMARY RAIN

I called my Rosemary Rain

I will never See her again

She lies
And stares
At the sky

And tries
To wake up again

But her eyes
Are washed by the rain

Here lies
Rosemary Rain

GREEK STREET

In Greek Street
Hide and seek
The brickworks and the dockyards
Cornhill to East India
Now we hardly have a hole To hide in

In Greek Street
Tip and run
The land of my youth is over
The skyscrapers fly over There's too many of you Around us

In Greek Street
Ducks and drakes
Not many of us left now
A shadow on each corner
Who remember how it used To be

Here you stay

CAST IRON

A bustling breeze
A flurry of feet
Who can be there?
Who do I meet?

A falling leaf
From a barren tree
Who can be there
Next to me?

An invisible laugh
A drop of blood
Whose are the prints
I see in the mud?

A cast iron bench
By the garden swing
Who is pushing it so?
I can't see a thing

Cler de Lune
Makes me see That there is Much more than me

Here I lie
On my back
And if she shines
My eye shines back

THE CARTER

The carter saw
The piercing eyes
As light as flame
As hard as ice

He heard a sound behind him

He felt the hand
As cold as clay
No pity no
No not today

He felt his venger bind him

Oh see how still
The carter lies
The very sight
Has closed his eyes

And that's how they will find him

NEUMANNTHAL

Another night
they might have passed but the shadows stayed and Neumannthal is sleeping

Another day they might have laughed but the shadows fell
and Neumannthal is sleeping

Another time they might have feared but the shadows knew

ATHENRY

Athenry
the holy road before us

Athenry
beware the one who saw us

Athenry
these priests surround the king

Athenry
their chants don't mean a thing

Athenry
this Christ is always creeping

Athenry
the gods are nearly weeping

SEPIANA

The sepia
Will cover us all
We will stare
Until we fall

Faces stare
Who cannot see Swimming in a Timeless sea

Now I am feeling Sleepier
I will soon be Sepia

II

Now I can swim
In a sleepy sea
The sepia
Has covered me

I'd like to move
From here some sday
But sepia
Gets in the way

I stare at you
You look at me
You'll never know
If I can see

All I know
Oh all I know

All I see

I know
Who was dreaming

I know
Who was lying

I know
Who was crying

TOSS OF A COIN

I made my wish on the toss of a coin Someone will win, someone will pay

Roll roll, don't forget
Rise rise, but not yet

It all adds up to the toss of a coin
I spend it all and who will pay?

Roll roll, don't forget

GIRL IN THE DOORWAY

There once was a girl who hated
All of the world around her
The people turned away
They took her as they found her

She got a demon in her
She knows she can't control it
She picked the stone right up
And even tried to roll it

She left the world wide open Ain't nothing to protect her
The fires in her heaven
Burned up all her nectar

She's standing in the doorway
Where you can barely see her She's looking at you sadly
You would not want to be her

MORNING LIGHT BLUE

The colour
Of life
Morning light blue

The sky
Is alive
With morning light blue

The glass is full Of emptiness
The room is filled
With loneliness

The world
Is so bright
With morning light blue

I know
It is love
To wake up with you

The streets are filled
With last night's rain

But soon
You will be home again

Home again

LOVE WALKS ALONE

Love walks alone
She walks by the sea
She stares at the waves
But don't bother me

Love waits for no one
She ain't got no time
Love is always innocent Whatever the crime

Oh the world the world is turning turning into the waves

Love says goodbye
But don't ever know
Who is always calling her
Or where she should go

Love says to herself
She can't be betrayed
But no one could forgive
The games she has played

Oh forgive forgive her falling falling into the waves

Love wants the world
And then she takes more
She asks for her freedom
Then says she is law

Love walks alone
She stares at the waves
She swims from the shore
And waits to be saved

Oh the waves the waves are watching washing her away

COUPE DE VILLE

In a world of sin
I ain't no saint
But I never saw
No one who ain't

She rode up
In a coupe de ville
If she won't do
No no one will

I learned to love
And felt so free
I haunted her
She haunted me

We learned to love
We were set free
I loved her
And she loved me

Her honey makes me come alive

LAKE GALAHAD

Let's go to Lake Galahad
All the ones who have been bad

All down to Lake Galahad
Hear the houses of the mad

Let's swim across Lake Galahad
Because we never can be sad

We'll ride the waves of Galahad
And we'll have more than what we had

TRASH

When I think of all the things I know
How can I ever let them go?

Without your love it's all trash

If I was half way to Paradise
I'd turn right back and not think twice

Lyrics

Precious diamonds and lumps of gold
Won't warm you up when you are cold

Without your love it's all trash

I wouldn't dream of waking up Without drinking from your loving cup

THERE'S A PLACE

The rainbow's edge swirls round and round
And never seems to touch the ground
Its colours fly up everywhere
It touches you and soaks your hair

*All the night
Hid from the light
We live our dreams
Out of sight*

*We lose our way Hide life away
Until the sun Brings back day :*

We know so well it will disappear
The sun will rise, the sky will clear
But there's a place beyond the sky
You'll never see a rainbow die

NIGHT TALK

Street talk
Underneath the yellow lights
Who is listening
When they turn out the lights?

Lyrics

Wheels turn
When we walk the streets at night
Fortunes burn
In the darkness of the night

*Plans are made Dreams are laid
So why are we afraid?*

Street talk
When the moon shines in the sky
Who is watching
When they stare up at the sky?

Hearts break
Hiding from the day
Night talk
Echoed in the day

ARROWHEAD

I

Arrow arrow : fly away!
Reach the sky
Touch the clay

II

Arrowhead : lying in the ground
Hand on the bow, where can it be found?

III

Oh arrow
Oh arrow
Do not flee the bow
They say the end is near at hand
Oh help me understand

Oh greenleaf
Oh greenleaf
Teach me how to grow
They say the end is near at hand
Oh help me understand

Oh river
Oh river
Teach me how to flow
They say the end is near at hand

IV

Oh prophet
Oh prophet
Surely you must know
They say the end is near at hand
We need to understand

Oh prophet
Oh prophet
Teach me how to dream Dreams are games the arrow plays Flowing through the stream

ATHAPASCA

Athapasca, spirit of the lake
Athapasca, when will she awake?

She's waiting, waiting for the rain
The water, water feels her pain

Athapasca, see the waters rise
She dances, she dances as she cries

She cries, her cries flow thru the breeze
She cries, her cries run to the seas

Athapasca, singing to the lake!
Awoken! -- she is now awake!

SLEEP OF DREAMS

When I awaken to the sleep of dreams
I walk forever in the endless ways
I open my eyes to let the daylight in
And that is where all dreams begin

I walk all day until I reach the night
But my dreams are all a sea of light
I walk all night until I reach the day
And when I waken I lose my way

Nothing seems to be what it seems Except when I close my eyes and sleep
But can I ever really be asleep
When I awaken to the sleep of dreams?

Sippers and sappers and flappers and frumps
The gorehound stomp is everywhere

They're all working off their mortal charm
The gorehound stomp is everywhere
Gorehound stomp you better take care

Across the ocean clomp clomp clomp
They gorehound stomp like a hydradjinn bomb
See the beat go tommb tommb tommb

Gorehound stomp you better take care

They dance until they go insane
And then they start to dance again

Most gorehound fun they ever had
The gorehound stomp is everywhere
Gorehound stomp you better beware

So everybody doin the gorehound stomp Satan himself even Donald Trump Even Romulus nuncle Remus too

GALILEE

A stranger came To Galilee
He came alone
He acted free

He planted corn
He settled down
He often rode us
Into town

*Oh Galilee
Don't ask me why
Perfect place
To live and die*

Then he went bad
And lost his way
He acted free
He had to pay

It wasn't right
That he should be Here in our town
Our Galilee

We met that night
We all agreed
He just weren't right
For Galilee

*Oh Galilee
Don't ask me why
Perfect place
To live and die*

BURN THE LIGHT I

You told me how to burn the light
And taught me not to fear the night
'Burn the light and mean it too
And darkness won't come after you'

*Burn the light
Don't melt away
Burn the light
Don't turn away*

*Burn the light
Don't fade away
Burn the light
Don't run away*

Lyrics

Close your eyes and melt away Reach beyond the world of grey
'Burn the light and mean it too
And darkness won't come after you'

I know now to burn the light
I know not to fear the night

*Burn the light
Don't melt away
Burn the light
Don't turn away*

CRAZY ANN

Here come Crazy Ann again
A stranger to the land of men

Crazy Ann oh Crazy Ann Why do they never understand?

She don't make any kind of sense
'Fie on thee', 'Hie thee hence'

Gee the world be made of sand
If it was run by Crazy Ann

THE RIDE | TRANSCEND

I. Ride

Buildings leap up either side
And all I did was take a ride
This world is full of hungry stuff
That don't know when it's had enough
There's no one who to make amends

This is a ride that never ends
I don't know at least I tried
To find out what's the other side

2. Transcend

Who are we?
What do we see?
Transcend!
Transcend!

Where to go?
What to know?
Transcend!
Transcend!

The waves are warm
The sea is calm
Transcend!
Transcend!

The house of love
Below above
Transcend!
Transcend!

Love is all
All is love
Transcend!
Transcend!

BURN THE LIGHT II

Above the world
Above the sky
There is no reason
There is no why

Below the earth
Beneath the day
There is a reason
There is a way

There is no reason
There is no light

DE INNOCENTIBUS (H. VON BINGEN, ADAPTED)

Rex noster promptus est suscipere sanguinem Innocentum.
Unde Anglii concinunt et in laudibus sonant, sed nubes super eundem sanguinem
plangunt.

Tyrannus autem in gravi somno mortis propter malitiam suam suffocatus est.
Sed nubes super eundem sanguinem
plangunt.

Gloria Patri et Filio et Spiritui Sancto.
Sed nubes super eundem sanguinem
plangunt.

SCÁTHACH

1. Green Wood Tree

The greenwood tree
Will always be Free forever
Forever free

The spirits rise
And they descend
Our land become A shadowland

The rains weep
On the carnal stones
The spirits seep
Into our bones

2. Cromm Crúaich

A mist descends
The dark gods call
The rain will heal
The White Bull fall

*And the Queen is waiting
And the Queen is waiting*

The sunlight burns
Revives the gloom
The King awakens
In the womb

*And the Queen is waiting
And the Queen is waiting*

3. Whiteland

Whiteland
heart of green corn of gold silver stream

Whiteland
carn and crag till and tarn salmon, stag

Whiteland
tud and stead sunrise-gold sunset-red

Whiteland
leaf and stalk well and flood flint and chalk

Whiteland
born in pain we will make it well again

The Queen will make it well again

CONKERERS (EMPERORS)

Conquerors of seas and lands
Togas, trinkets, towns and wine Forums, quorums, courts and tax
But you can't have what's mine
Have what's mine

Oh, take the Wall right back to Rome Leave our home sweet home

Conquerors from overseas
Legions of the tenth estate Tilted speech and politics Won't turn back the Fates Turn back the Fates

Conquerors of innocence
Armed to the teeth with plots and plans
This land will outlast you all Oh empire of sand
Empire of sand

You can take the Wall right back to Rome Back to home sweet home

TWA HORSES

The horses ride
Like dynamite
Through the night
The holy night
The horses ride
Through the land
From the sea
From their home
The boats they came
The ships set sail
From the jut land
From the eng land
Where shadows wail
The horses ride
To a new land
To the white land
They ride like fire
Through the night
The holy night
To claim their right
To free the land
To a free land
To be free
They crossed the sea
From the jut land
From the eng land
To the white land
The ships they came
From their home
The horses ride
Though the land
The holy land

CONKERERS (LORDS)

Conquerors

They don't mean harm

THE BALLAD OF A TYLER

There was a honest citizen
He spoke for us all
He knew how to speak
And how to stand tall

He talked to the journeyman
And the ploughman too
And he told them, 'God's truth
They are stealing from you!'

He went to the King
And he talked to the King
Who swore him an oath
While he was shaking

He talked of freedom
And he talked of right
The Tyler he put up
A terrible fight

Though he was no Baron
And he was no Lord
The Tyler was proud
And he drew his sword

The Tyler said
And he said to the king
'I say your words will not Mean anything!'

Oh he went to the field
And he went to the town
And they followed him
From all around

So The Tyler said
And he said to the King
'A bird in the cage
Will never take wing'

So they took The Tyler
And they cut him down
And that's why the King Still wears a crown

Oh The Tyler said
And he was so right
'If you want to be free
Then you have to fight'

There was an honest citizen
They cut him down
He took to the fields
And he took to the town

PAPA NO

Papa-papa-papa-papa-papa . . . no!
The King says that you got to go

The King says that you're in the way
He wants it done the English way

Team Cromwell has mapped out the story
There's money in it if not much glory

Remember now he's an Emperor
And he's not much of a temperer

It's all hunting shouting weddings
Treasons trials and beheadings

Lyrics

For all that time you taught us how Now I would say he's papa now

So you have to go, papa, no lie Papa, goodbye -- papa, goodbye

COMMONISTS

Whispers echo Thro the land
Plots take root
Show their hand

*Have you heard?
The commonists,
the commonists
have won!*

These commonists
Confront the King
And he cannot Do anything

He cannot do anything

THE MARCH OF THE POOR

I. Marching South For The Working Man

From the north
To the south --

Marching for the working man

Province to The capital --

Marching for the working man

Why should we have to?
Why do we want to?
Why must we?

Why should we?
Marching south for the working man

2. Welfare

Oh welfare is good
To people in need
But in times of plenty
It grows like a weed

These useless mouths
All wanting more
We cannot afford
The poor

In a perfect world
We'd all eat well
But if that were true
There'd be no Hell

We have to face facts --
In the marketplace
There's no room at all
For an act of grace

So let me be frank -- Welfare is wrong
They are not like us
They do not belong

But something happened and we knew that it was wrong
We had to learn the Devil's song

In 68
The Guild, the Serjeant and the Squire
Began the work of slowly putting out the fire

And what is life? Who is it for?
Does God forgive the conqueror?
The gods are dead and deaf as brass
So I don't care

All I know is life is good
And that to me and mine is all It's good to be a queen at last
A conqueror

BAB AL-ASSURA

Last week there was heavy summer rain in Damascus and I so went to the market with Muwatallis, who is not always the best companion. We were looking for maps of the old city, the Armenian Quarter. Moo reckoned we wouldn't find one, but eventually we did. It was rather old, around 1420 or so, and drafted by the hopelessly obscure Muhsin ibn Badr al-Andalusi. I'd seen a portrait of him once and he was a fearful looking man. Though his mouth was plump with gold teeth, he was never much more than a pauper: who would pay much for a man to make maps? I had good hopes for this particular map, however.

“There,” I burst out when we set down to look at it. Moo looked blank. “The Assura Gate,” I shouted. “Where does it say that?”, Moo cried. “Look, there are five buildings this side, three on that, and that mark there – see? - is a forge. Obvious if you think about it, it must be the Assura Gate.” “But where exactly?” “I can’t say, but we’re close.”

How al-Andalusi had found out about the Assura Gate I was not sure and why he made the map I couldn’t say. I reckoned he was after hard gold and that he could have sold his secret for a tidy sum. But after the map was finished, he is lost to history and any fortune remained no doubt unmade. Unwillingly perhaps, his secret was kept.

Next day we set out for our adventure. We started early. Caught the bus to Shams and disembarked. That was where it was near. That early summer morning was clear and bright, but as we walked further into Shams we noticed the shadows growing, like bitumen creeping out of a jar. As we walked on, everything became quiet. It was not silence, but a very particular type of quietness, as if someone or something was listening. Moo didn’t like it and neither did I, to tell you the truth.

I took out the map, which was now incredibly bright, as if it had its own inner force. As the outer world became darker, it grew brighter. Soon I said to Moo, “It is here.” “How do you know?” “It is here,” I repeated. Moo was content with that.

I threw the map into the air. I immediately noticed shadows creeping out from the doorways, shadowy figures with crudely warped faces -- faces that were almost but not quite featureless.

There was a pair of shadowy eyes in each shape and below that a shadowy mouth and as well, and my heart almost stopped with fear, I caught sight of sharp shadowy teeth. One of the shadows leapt up to the map, its terrible features masked with a primal fury. The map fluttered, like a flame, a white flame. The shadow made an attempt to grab the map and we were now surrounded by other shadows, dozens maybe hundreds, and it was unbearably cold. Yet at that moment the map made contact with something. It must have been the Assura Gate. It must have been that -- it opened and opened wide. The map must have unlocked it like a key, a white key. The shadow was sucked into the gate, its darkness being absorbed into the immersive light. The shadows that surrounded it were likewise dragged in, unwilling and terrified. When the last shadow was gone, the gate closed.

We were left in a pleasant daylight, a kilometer from the center of the city.

“What were they?”, asked Moo. “I was scared for my life, I could not move.” “They are I suppose us,” I replied. “At least, an ancient form of us. There are not many left these days. The Huma rarely intend to harm us, but even so they are always dangerous. It is good they are almost gone from this world.”

“A sort of us that is harmful without realising it, you say?”, mused Moo. “Is that any different from the real us?” That’s why I like Moo to accompany me on these things. He is not always the best companion but, on occasion, speaks good simple wisdom.

HOW AND WHEN

The hours passed
You were not there
The time had left me Christ knows where

If you were here
And now was then Maybe I'd know
The how and when

But here I am
We move along
The how and when
Is often wrong

The how and when
Is often wrong

The how and when

MARY'S SONG

Mary Mary
Wrapped in sand
A golden seed
In her hand

Plough of gold
Cast and throw
If she should sow it
Will it grow?

Sands of time
Golden sand Running over Golden land

Golden garden
Golden sun
A golden world
Would be begun

But how oh how Oh Mary oh
Will your garden
Ever grow?

HEAVEN TO BE

This place is a heaven to be
But it don't mean to you what it means to me
Four walls and eternity

Heaven's alright everyone agrees
But when there's nothing here to hold you - jeez
Some people are so hard to please

Lyrics

That's when I calls your name
'Cause being in heaven just ain't the same
If both of us can't play this game

That's why I'm getting out of here Can't be heaven if you're not here
I'm gonna make it disappear

ROOM WITHOUT A VIEW

Waiting in a downtown bar
A crowd of voices all around Windows glazed I can't see out Can't get up; run to ground

Sea without a shore
Wall without a door
Room without a view
Waiting for you

The night is old as paradise
Tied to the mast at closing time
A crowd of voices in the street
A sea of chains as cold as ice

Sun without a moon
Song without a tune
Room without a view
Waiting for you

A room with half a human life
I hear the sea wash night away
Walls look on with bloodshot eyes
The moon falls in the moonlit bay

*Bull without a horn
A ring that's never worn
A room without a view

CIA

I exist to persuade Suitcase of $ got it made
I exist just to corrupt
And upset and disrupt

*I am working for the CIA
Who will I destroy today?*

I'm psychopath in every limb
Every switch I flick is dim Undercover day and night
Life is lived well out of sight

*I am working for the CIA
Who will I destroy today?*

Columbia and El Salvador
I shoot to kill and kill the poor Syria and the Ukraine
Everything comes round again

*I am working for the CIA
Who will I destroy today?*

Dark glasses black hole suit
So, you see, I ain't no brute
I'm the nightmare of the day
I make dreams made out of clay

IT IS OBVIOUS

Calling calling all I'm seeing calling calling to the world

Am I just another being falling into where they're hurled?

It is obvious
It is obvious
Whoever saw it all like us?

THE BLUE HORSE

I saw a blue horse
Of course it ran away

There could have been no force
To ride my blue horse that day

TALL AND HIGH

Once I was tall
Once I was high
But now I'm like you
And that ain't no lie

Once I was high
Once I was tall
But now there ain't no one
Who can catch me at all

I know who is gone
I know who is there
But as for me
I no longer care

THE FOOL ON THE WAY

See the sky so blue above Beautiful beautiful day
But I'll still be a fool for love
And then go on my way

HULLABALLOO

There's a terrible hullabaloo
The animals are escaping from the zoo
(There's a terrible hullabaloo)

*When your mind is troubled, and your feet don't fit, and the weight is doubled when you carry it :
you think to yourself that if only you knew the road ahead of yo is full of hullabaloo!*

That yonder fellow just don't know what to do
He runs like a rabbit but he don't have a clue
(There's a terrible hullabaloo)

It was never like this even in '62
Everything's leaping like an angry kangaroo
(There's a terrible hullabaloo)

The lions eat the tigers and they're coming after you
What they said is all coming true
(There's a terrible hullabaloo)

TRILOGY #1

I. Chocolate Army

Chocolate army arm in arm
I'm not about to die

Chocolate army arm in arm chocolate about to dry

Chocolate army sound the alarm you melt and can't see why

Chocolate army keep oh so calm they'll eat you if they try

Chocolate army fly from harm but chocolate wings won't fly

2. The Serpent

I am the serpent
Who lives in the sea
There is no secret
You want to catch me

*Tired old serpent Swallowtail
Launch the fleet Set the sail*

I lurk in the ocean
I linger in time
I am the serpent
That is my crime

*Feathered serpent Fleet as ten
Never been seen
By mortal men*

3. The War Is Nearly Over

The war is nearly over
There's not a lot to do
The body in the river
Is staring back at you

War is like a lover
An army through the heart
I don't know if we'll ever Really be apart

ALTERED SONG

I held my gaze to the door,
Which was grey
My anger rose and softly scored Into its prey
Still, the ledge
And eaves ;
Rain spat and snapped the bells
Low beyond the leaves

My heart it shook
Beyond the ground
My mind I took Beyond the sound -
The circle sound
Around my mind
The sound of hounds
Of hell behind

THE EPIGONI

I wanna go where they know me
I ain't no mere epigoni

MIRROR OF LOVE [DEMO]

Seems like I must have been dreaming Looking in the mirror of love
Like a prince falling out of a fairy tale
Like the sky falling down from above

HIGHWAY NOON

America prairie wide prairie long
Place where the golden corn belong

Highway noon that lasts all day
In the fields the people play Highway noon sets beneath the sun
As if fate has spun a dream

RAIN IT MAY

Who knows why it rains in May?
But why did it have to rain today?

CALLER IS STONED

Radeo Emperya
Exits closed
Steps inside
Exits closed

Radeo Emperya
I hear her speak
She says 'Hallo Hallo'
She starts to speak

Radeo Emperya
Is the colour of mad
When she started to speak
No one was glad

Exits closed
Steps inside
You see things you never see
Most of the time

(Anyway)
She said 'Hallo Hallo'
As friendly as ice
Radeo Emperya
She started to speak

You people are weak
She said -
You people are weak
She said

You work six days
Six days straight
And on the seventh day
You're drunk with hate

(She said)
And I saw a great stone Jump out of the river
And he came back to life
Like a radeo turned on again
Like a radeo turned on again

But you people are weak
(She said)
You people are weak
You never see things
Half of the time

Hey brother
Hey sister
Why don't you call me?
Why don't you call me?
Why don't you call?

You people are weak
Why don't you call me?
Why don't you call me?
And come back to life

Lyrics

Like a radio turned on again
Like a radio turned on again
Why don't you call?
(She said)
Why don't you call?

CLOWNS AND CLOUDS

You're just a clown
All upside down
High in the air
And people stare
And when you fall
No one will care

Oh up above
We fall in love
And fall back down
Just like a clown
Fall through the air
And no one is there

Oh up above
We fall in love
To fall in love means falling down
Like a clown
Up in the clouds
Clowns and clouds
Falling down like rain again
From the clouds

YOU ME OH

In the end
I don't know

In the end
You me oh

I don't know
I can't see the meaning of it all

You me oh
Is all

WHEN

When I break free
What will I be?

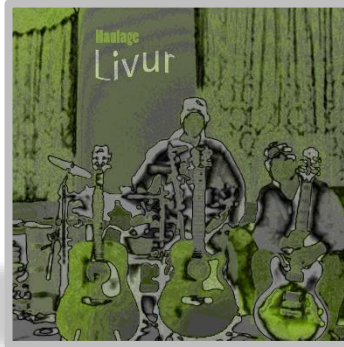

What would I do?
What would I see?

I see it all
I hear it call Call call call

WEDDING BELLS

She sing high for the wedding bells
She sing high for the wedding bells
Don't know why the things she tells

LUG BOUND

Lug bound
in the summer sun

God is dead!
let's have us some fun!

Lug bound
in the fields of corn

God is gone!
we shall be reborn!

Lug bound
evening come

God gone dumb fi fo fum!

HAULAGE

Haul haul haul stand tall

The holy tree will fall!

And Lug would never save you all!

DENDRITES

The trees, the yew stretches out like a snake running down a stream in a cunning dream and a beam of light flows right into his tomb

It is he whom sorrow and weeping will overcome and he shall not speak for a week

Lug is dumb
Lug is dumb

HEROIN HATES YOU

Lug the still liar veins in his arm calm as calm

Lug flows out of eternal time :
is that a crime?

In the greensward the needle falls and the raven calls

Great Lug is dead!
see how he lies!
even Lug dies!
